Servant Groups of Mennonite Church of the Servant

SHALOM Servant Group

This Servant Group will meet on Tuesday evening, October 9 at 7:30 PM at the home Jeanette Stucky, 5204 Plaza Ln. Together through sharing, prayer, study and service we seek to make connections between inner life and outward peacemaking. We are currently reading and discussing the book "Essential Spirituality: The 7 Central Practices to Awaken the Heart and Mind" by Roger Walsh. Contact Pat Cameron (262-2644) for more information.

TRANSFORMATION Servant Group

This Servant Group will focus on spiritual discernment. We will begin each meeting with worship and prayer, including personal sharing, and be open to teaching the art of spiritual discernment to others in the church and/or offer ourselves for clearness meetings with others. Our name, "Transformation," comes from Romans 12:1-2, which says that transformation (not being conformed to the world) is the key to discerning the will of God. Contact Lois Barrett at 264-3686 for October meeting dates and locations.

FAITH ISSUES Reading Group

The women's Reading Group meets October 6, 4 PM at the church, for the last session in the book study of Borg's Reading the Bible Again for the First Time. The following meeting, on October 20, will consist of evaluation and recommitment to another series of studies. Women interested in joining a discussion of stimulating books and nurturing our spiritual growth are welcome at this time. Contact Vangie Truex at 263-0204 if interested.

Sunday

October 28, 2007

*Blessed be the ones who dance
in the corridors of death, who sing
in the hallways of terror, who laugh
in the prisons of fear, who shout
across the silencing walls, who love
beyond the borders of hatred, who live
to welcome home freedom, who die
never turning their heads who return
as the rising of hope.*

For all the saints who went before us who have spoken to our hearts and touched us with your fire'

We Praise you, O God.

For all the saints who live beside us whose weaknesses and strengths are woven with our own

We Praise you, O God

For all the saints who live beyond us who challenge us to change the world with them

We praise you, O God.

The Lions and the Mennonites

According to the September 2007 issue of The Lion, a tsunami generated by the 1964 Good Friday earthquake destroyed Afognak, Alaska. All of the residents were evacuated. It was replaced by a new community named Port Lions. It's the only community in the US built entirely by service organizations. It was built by Afognak natives, the Lions Club, Mennonite Disaster Service and Mennonite Voluntary Service workers.

By all working together they cleared the land. They hand dug trenches for a sewage and water system for 44 homes. They built a diesel generator that operated the electric system for the homes. They also built prefab homes in Kodiak and floated them by barge to Port Lions.

When Afognak natives returned, a drawing was held to see who received each lot. The Nativity of Theotokos, a Russian Orthodox Church was allowed to draw first. Then a timber dam was built on Branchwater Creek to create a 2.5 million gallon reservoir to feed a newly installed 125,000 gallon water storage tank. It took two years. Before leaving, the Mennonite workers erected a 10 ft. cross dedicating the new village to the hope that it would be spared from future tsunamis.

The economy was good back then because of nearby fish canneries and lumber mills. It became a stop for the state ferry. Eventually a school and a general store were added. The population grew from 187 to 400. Today the community is struggling to retain its young people and the economy is declining. But it is still marching on.

Have you ever heard of Port Lion before? Maybe I wasn't paying attention when they talked about it in church. I was young then. I am impressed by the hard work those Mennonites did. Could we do it again, if necessary? I'm really impressed because the native Alaskans are still talking about the gift of the Mennonite workers 43 years later.

IN THE NEWS

MOTHERS 4 MOTHERS

On the first Saturday in September the Mothers 4 Mothers group met at the park for an ice cream social and the last blast of summer. The fountains were turned off but water balloons made for a good substitute. The kids played "midnight" which has a lot of yelling and chasing around. It looked like fun and they played well together. On the third Saturday we help a potluck reflection meeting. It was well attended and many had prayer requests. Next month will be just as exciting. Mark October 27 on your calendars. On that date, please join us for our annual Homecoming Celebration and Dedication of our new space.

DID YOU KNOW

A dusty camp is home for more than 20,000 people displaced by the violence in the arid Darfur region of western Sudan. A Church World Service (CWS) supported community center inside the camp is enabling people to help each other overcome their traumatic experiences. The center offers livelihood for both men and women. It also provides for the basic needs of the uprooted families. Your little help through your donations to the CROP Walk can make a big difference:

- $25 can provide blankets to a family of 5 displaced by violence or natural disaster,
- $50 can provide oral rehydration therapy for 55 children suffering from diarrhea, a deadly disease to children in the developing world.
- $100 can provide a micro-credit loan to a woman trying to start a business to support her family.
- $200 can provide a water buffalo to a farming family struggling to increase their farm production.

A BAD JOKE TO END ON

An atheist was walking through the woods, silently speaking, "What majestic trees!" "What a powerful river!" "What beautiful animals!"

His sense of awe was disturbed by a rustling in the bushes behind him. Looking back, he saw a 7-foot grizzly a few feet away. He took off as fast as he could up the path. He looked over his shoulder and the bear was closing in on him.

As he attempted to run faster, he tripped and fell on the ground. He rolled over to get up but the bear was over him with a raised paw. The atheist cried out, "Oh my God!"

Time stopped. The bear froze. The forest was silent.

A bright light shone upon the man and voice came out of the sky, "You deny my existence for all these years, teach others I don't exist and even credit creation to cosmic accident." Do you expect me to help you out of this predicament? Am I to count you as a believer?"

The atheist looked directly into the light, "It would be hypocritical of me to suddenly ask you to treat me as a Christian now, but perhaps you can make the bear a Christian.

"Very well," said the voice.

The light went out. The sounds of the forest resumed. And the bear lowered his paw, brought his paws together, bowed his head and spoke: "Lord, bless this food, which I am about to receive from thy bounty through Christ our Lord, Amen."

Time Change

A Reminder: Standard Time will return on Sunday morning, November 4.
